

Limitless, undying love which shines around me like a million suns-- it calls me on and on across the universe.

Ben, Sam, Rachel, Danielle, and Amanda: “And I thank the Lord there are people out there like you.” You guys are wonderful, wonderful friends. Thank you for everything you’ve done for me during the past four years. I couldn’t find a more fitting way to end this semester than having you all in my recital. And HEY...let’s go to Dairy Queen to celebrate afterwards!! Love you, dudes.

Billy, Lydia, and Jon: Thank you for dealing with me after I come home from a long day at school, and thank you for making my life infinitely easier on the hard days (hey, remember when I got a flat tire?). I love you guys, and I couldn’t have picked better roommates.

Alex P. and Rachel B.: THANK YOU for being a part of my recital! You are both such amazing people, and I am so glad that I have gotten closer to you over the past couple of years. I am also so glad that I had the opportunity to work with you both this fall!

Ms. Page: Your support and guidance for these past two and a half years has been astounding. You have truly shown me what it is to be an artist, not just a performer. It has been an absolute honor to work with someone of such talent, experience, and generosity. Thank you.

Louis: THANK YOU!!! This recital never would have been possible without your help. I couldn’t ask for a better coach!

Chris Drew and Chris Clark: Thank you for playing in my recital! You have made this experience even more memorable!

Mom: I don’t think that there are words for how much you mean to me. I could not have survived college without my daily phone (bitching) fests with you. You pushed me through all of this, and I know that you will always be there to push me even harder in the real world. I love you.

Dad: Thank you for assuring me that I will always be able to make it through anything, because “I’m a Creary”; you gave me some good genes! You have never, ever doubted that I’d make it in any endeavor I have taken on, and I thank you so much for that. Thank you for giving me the work ethic and drive needed to make it in life, and the love needed to comfort me when I didn’t quite make it. Oh, and thanks for the beautiful voice that you obviously passed my way (I’m expecting to see your recital next...maybe a joint one with mom?). I love you!

“The Boys”: Thank you for being really good brothers, even when I’m not the best sister. I always look forward to coming home to see you because you are the two people who I enjoy being with the most. You ALWAYS make me laugh (even in church...actually, mostly in church), and I love you guys for that. God gave me two little brothers to torture and love, and not a day goes by that I don’t feel eternally grateful for that.

“La La”: “Born like sisters to this world” (had to quote Regina). I love you, Aley. Thank you for driving all the way from Burlington to introduce me—I wouldn’t have had anyone else do it. I hope you know how much you mean to me.

My family: Thank you so much for driving six hours to come see me sing. Your support and love throughout the years is the thing that has kept me going. I hope you enjoy this, and I hope that I will make you all proud in the future. I truly have the best family in the world!

The MT Class of 2010: How lucky am I that I’ve been able to work closely with such talented and loving people for the past four years? I love you all as individuals, and I love us as a group. Bring on tomorrow (ha...ha...ha...)!

Everyone who is here!: You guys are awesome. Thank you so much for coming out to support me! You are all such wonderful people, and I am so blessed to have been able to work and learn with people like you all!
