

THANK YOU...

To my mother,

for being the most supportive figure in my life. I am so blessed, and I will never be able to express to you my appreciation for everything you have done for me. This performance is wholly dedicated to you.

To Justin,

for the little things you do for me every day. Having your endless help has allowed me to achieve so much more as a student. There's no one I'd rather come home to at the end of the day.

To Kate,

for never giving up on me! You've helped me to express myself in ways that I never thought possible. I'm so glad that I have had the good fortune to have you as my teacher for the past four years.

To Louis,

for being the best coach a girl could hope for! You are such an asset to the students at this school, and I absolutely could not have done this recital without you. Simply put, you are amazing!

To Ben, Danielle, Leah and Sam,

for being a part of my recital. Nothing is more comforting than having brilliant performers on stage with you—especially when they're also your friends.

To my friends, for helping me survive these past four years. I don't think I could have made it through all the choir rehearsals and endless hours in front of an espresso machine without the companionship of the most interesting, talented, passionate, and fun people I have ever met.

To my family, for coming together tonight. It means so much to me that you would all travel your various distances to show your love and support. It would not be the same without you.

To the Music Theater Class of 2010, for being such a warm and attentive group of people. Watching everyone grow as unique performers has been one of the most positive experiences I've had in college. (I just hope NYC can handle our heightened state of 'young, hip, sexy, fresh!')

The Senior Recital of Rachel Benoit

Big Wings

by Georgia Stitt

Painting My Kitchen

by John Bucchino

Eduardo

by Marc Smollin & Kelly Dupuis

I Won't Mind

by Jeff Blumenkrantz, Annie Kessler & Libby Saines

Make Your Own Party

by Zina Goldrich & Marcy Heisler
featuring Samantha Apgar, Leah Creary & Danielle Marchand

Dreaming, Wide Awake

by Jason Robert Brown

The Girl in 14G

by Jeanine Tesori & Dick Scanlan

Perfect

by Benj Pasek & Justin Paul

Perfect

by Tom Kitt

Even Though

by Ryan Cunningham & Joshua Salzman

Simple Story

by Kait Kerrigan & Brian Lowdermilk
featuring Ben Houghton

The Distance You Have Come

by Scott Alan

INTERMISSION

Rachel Benoit is a candidate for a Bachelor of Music degree in Music Theater.
Rachel is a student of Professor Kate Johnson.